Veterinarian Feed Directive

Informational Program

Diane McDaniel, State Liaison for the Ohio Department of Agriculture

Do you have unanswered questions regarding the new FDA VFD Ruling? Plan to attend and learn about the new FDA Ruling on Veterinarian Feed Directive that will change the way producers use antibiotics in food animals.

Diane McDaniel with the Ohio Department of Agriculture will begin the program by explaining the ruling and how it will affect small scale producers.

Following Diane's presentation local veterinarians will give an update on how their offices will be handling the new FDA ruling.
